WE MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

Life—so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love—like the autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're going
All the secrets of the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years
Will come and go
And take us up always up

We may never pass this way again

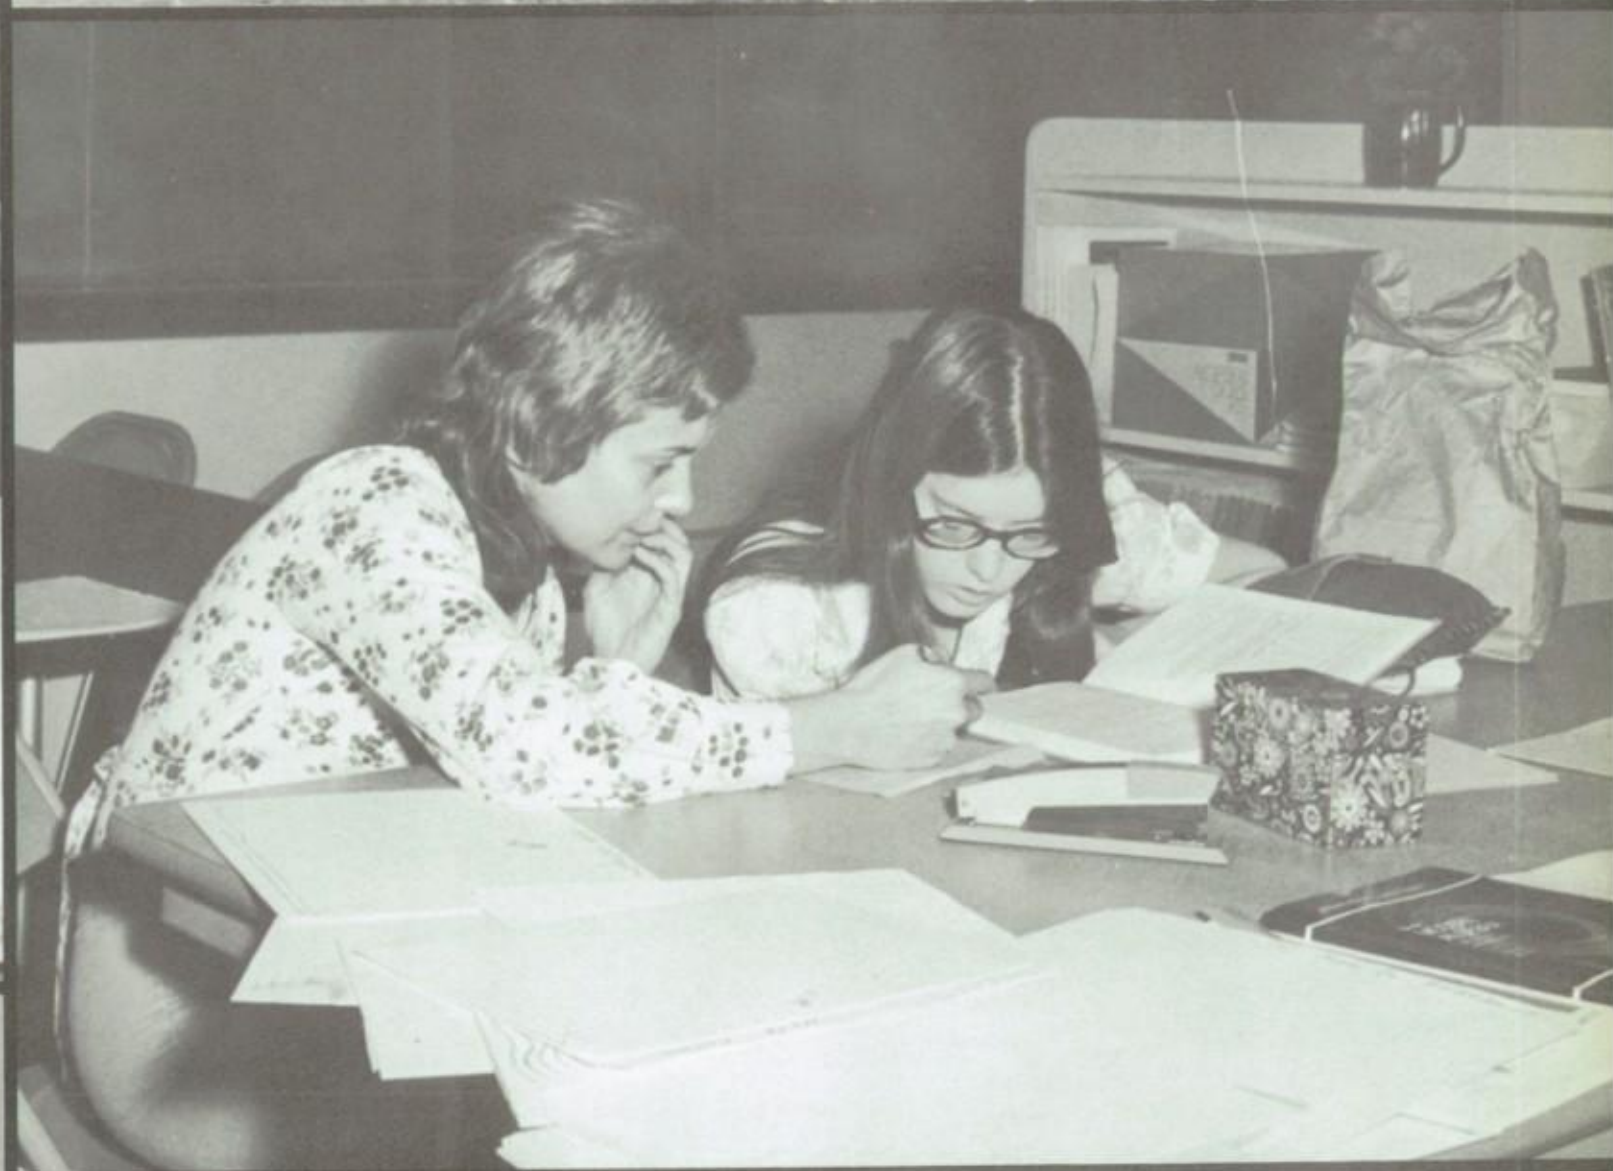

Dreams—so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace—like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years
Will come and go
And take us up—always up

We may never pass this way again

Jim Seals/Dash Crofts

Cherish your memories and store them safely, for friends, acquaintances, familiar places and happy times are all important to us. Even though the faces we meet each day may disappear in the years to come, fading away as we each travel our winding road, the memory of them will be a precious, private possession which is ours forever. Our actions and beliefs, dreams and attitudes, all determine tomorrow's world, but the best thoughts in life will be of what has happened today. Events, however small, are the pages that collect together to form our life, with its joys, its heartaches, and above all, its successes. Continuing on with unfailing determination will bring us to our goals, and upon looking back, we will ponder the realization of what once seemed so small was, in fact, a meaningful step towards the understanding and shaping of ourselves. Look ahead and be strong. Armed with the lessons of today, we can greet the horizon with a hopeful heart. Holding memories and keeping them close, gaze into the future—it is as bright and as promising as the glittering dawn.

THE RED AND BLUE

Hail, Alma Mater's colors proudly flying,
Red and the Blue, we pledge to thee our love,
Dearer to us than crimson deep or purple,
Guide of our way, as true as stars above.

Though some love the blue and gray,
And others a gleam of gold,
The flash of the green or silvery sheen
Displayed when the flags unfold—
Whatever the shade may be,
That keeps others brave and true,
Though colors are many,
You'll not find that any
Compare with the Red and Blue.

Emblem we love, thy colors softly blended,
Speak of the life that all our sons must share;
Red for the sun whose beams are shining on us,
Blue for the sky, so bright and so fair.

A Sophomore is . . .

Finding yourself totally lost because you tried taking an unfamiliar shortcut.

Being told that you're in the wrong building just two minutes before the late bell rings.

That sinking feeling in your stomach when your teachers ask "How many Sophomores in here?" and yours is the only hand in the air.

Paying close attention to the morning announcements for fear that you'll miss something important.

Looking at a junior after she has had swimming and thinking to yourself, "Oh no, I'll look like that next year."

Being the only soul around who's running to beat the late bell.

Wondering why in the world the pep rallies have no pep!

Carrying your schedule around with you ages after school has started just so you won't forget your locker combination.

Finding out that you're in the wrong room after class has already begun and roll has been taken.

Being a baby again after being a sophisticated freshman.

A Junior is . . .

Rolling out of bed at 7 A.M. on Saturday mornings to take College Boards.

Anxiously waiting for December to come so you can get your class ring, then looking at your hand every five minutes to make sure it's still there.

Having to cross between buildings in sub-zero temperatures with dripping hair and bloodshot eyes.

Watching the sophomores and saying "Was I like that?"

Sitting in your homeroom during an alternate schedule and wondering what all the senior assemblies are about.

Trying to do a back flip off the diving board, only to have your swim cap pop off and sink to the bottom of the pool.

Proudly singing "Juniors never stagger!" in the Tech High cheer.

Knowing your way around at the beginning of the year.

Feeling secure but a little shaky when you realize that there's only one year left.

Trying desperately to win the Powderpuff game even though the seniors have "Big Matilda" on their side.

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE

If a child lives with criticism,
 He learns to condemn.
If a child lives with hostility,
 He learns to fight.
If a child lives with ridicule,
 He learns to be shy.
If a child lives with shame,
 He learns to feel guilty.
If a child lives with tolerance,
 He learns to be patient.
If a child lives with encouragement,
 He learns confidence.
If a child lives with praise,
 He learns to appreciate.
If a child lives with fairness,
 He learns justice.
If a child lives with security,
 He learns to have faith.
If a child lives with approval,
 He learns to like himself.
If a child lives with acceptance and friendship,
 He learns to find love in the world.

RETIREMENT

Knowledge is a priceless gift. It is not obtained easily or quickly, yet when found can be passed on as a tool, benefiting the futures of generations to come. There are those devoted to the teaching of their life's lessons even though precious time must be sacrificed. They offer their knowledge willingly, wisely, and without selfishness, realizing the importance of a fine education. With grateful hearts we thank you wonderful people and wish you many blessings and much happiness in the years to come.

"75"—The year of the "comeback kids". McKeesport High School can be proud of the successful basketball team in 1975, as the Tigers won the coveted Section 5 championship through a sectional playoff. The "kids", three seniors and nine juniors did "comeback" and achieve the number one position in 5A. The Tigers' path to glory was obstructed by tough competition—they had to win their last two games against the front-winning clubs—Penn Hall and West Mifflin. Victory was sweet to the delirious Tiger fans as McKeesport forced the race into a three-way tie. Not to be denied in their "comeback" efforts, McKeesport arose to the occasion and defeated Penn Hall to win the Section 5 title. The trip to the Civic Arena was a thrilling climax to a rewarding season. Aliquippa, a pre-tourney favorite, defeated the tenacious Tigers in a nip-and tuck contest 62-50. The season was a fulfilling one to the fans, players, and coaching staff. Winning Section 5 and playing in the quarter finals was a great accomplishment by the "comeback kids" of '75.

To Ron Spinosi, Kevin Murphy, Dennis Harvilla and Pete Fedor—Thanks, you have all added to a wonderful senior year at McKeesport High School.

To the underclassmen—Your, as many others, have shared in the achievements. Through dedication, it is hoped your rewards in the future will be as satisfying as they are now.

I take my pencil in my hand and write about the Tiger Band. Our drum major is Buddy Black, never a whistle does he lack. The whistle sounds just like a bird, then a cry of "juice" is heard. We scream and scream 'til we turn blue—then Buddy says, "I can't hear you". Everyone says we sound grand, what you'd expect from our great big band. So then a break call is heard at last, "Take a break, rookies stand fast!". When we leave band and graduate, these things we will always appreciate.

Being a majorette is getting up every summer morning at 7:30 for a three hour practice session in the hot sun, while everyone else sleeps away until noon. It's coming to school with your hair in curlers, shorts, and tennis shoes in freezing temperatures to practice with the band. Being a majorette may cause a lot of hardships and lead one into giving up certain pleasures, but it also rewards one in opportunities and gives one self satisfaction in performing for her Alma Mater.

Despite the disappointment of not performing an operetta, A Cappella Choir still had a busy and successful year. Striving to improve vocal skills and musicianship at daily rehearsals, they presented their work at three concerts. In keeping with the Bicentennial emphasis, they presented a program of American music, including an extended work, "Song of Democracy", accompanied by the orchestra. They sang at the community's Bicentennial Service, part of a week-end observance, and were joined by two other choirs in the performance of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" with the McKeesport Symphony. An opportunity to hear other high school choirs was afforded by participating in the High School Chorus Day at California State College. They sang for the Senior Recognition Service and Graduation. Seniors were honored at the annual banquet.

RED AND BLUE

The Red and Blue staff writes and publishes the newspaper independently each month of the school year. Much work is involved in the production of the newspaper. First, reporters must go out into the school and community and dig for news about which they write articles. These articles are then given to copy editors who correct them for grammatical and factual errors. The articles are then typed. Typing mistakes are corrected, and afterward, the articles are reexamined by the proofreaders for any other errors. Finally, the article is ready to be used in the newspaper. Page editors choose articles, and lay them out on the pages in a proper, interesting manner. The paper is now ready for the press. The newspaper is printed in our own Graphic Arts department, using the offset press production method. The finished product is then sold to the student body. The Red and Blue staff is also responsible for preparing all football programs for the home games and a program for the "Neenie Campbell Memorial" basketball game.

Souvenir

Symbole bien reel de la vie,
Cet album s'emplit lentement.
Chaque page rappelle une amie,
Un beau jour, un coeur aimant.
Chaque page, une chaste pensee,
Chaque nom, un etre aime.
Comme le filet que le vent chasse
Et qui vient a nos pieds mourir
Ainsi tout passe, tout s'efface
Tout Excepte le souvenir!

Erlkönig

Wer reitet so spat durch Nacht und
Wind?
Es ist der Vater mit seinem Kind;
Er hat den Knaben wohl in dem Arm,
Er fasst ihn sicher, er halt ihn warm.

Mein Sohn, was birgst du so bang
dein Gesicht?—
Siehst, Vater, du den Erlkönig nicht?
Den Erlenkönig mit Kron' und
Schweif:
Mein Sohn, es ist ein Nebelstrief.—

Dem Vater grauset's, er reitet
geschwind,
Er halt in Armen das achzende Kind.
Erreicht den Hof mit Muhe und
Not;

THE SNOW

It sifts from leaden sieves,
It powders all the wood,
It fills with alabaster wool
The wrinkles of the road.

It reaches to the fence,
It wraps it, rail by rail,
Till it is lost in fleeces;
It flings a crystal veil

On stump and stack and stem,—
The summer's empty room,
Acres of seams where harvests were,
Recordless, but for them.

It ruffles wrists of posts,
As ankles of a queen,—
Then stills its artisans like ghosts,
Denying they have been.
Emily Dickinson

Student Council is a chance to learn and to meet others. This year that is exactly what our student council did. The year was filled with many activities where everyone could be involved, and everything could be done together. Things were planned and then accomplished. We lent a listening ear and a helping hand. There is nothing like being a part of Student Council.

GRADUATION

Our maturing is like the growing of the tree of life. While striving to endure the elements, each branch becomes stronger day by day. We learn to be cautious and humble, yet proud and curious, searching for high ideals, unexplored horizons and mystifying rainbows. Even though courage, love and maturity progress, there are still great fears of loneliness and failure. Yet an inner stamina shields itself from the misfortune and disenchantment that may shadow each life. Realizing all is not perfect in the world, we acquire a desire to mend the evil ways of mankind, turning them into a universal transaction of love and everlasting peace, while giving to those who are already here a small ray of hope, assuring life's continuance throughout the ages. The tree of life, portrayed by us, the youth of today, indeed gives unto each soul the bravery and desire to fulfill the demands of life to our fullest extent, blossoming in both spirit and body to form adults of tomorrow.
